

Using Data Integration and Information Technology to Improve Care Coordination for Young Children

December 3, 2009
2:00 PM Eastern

*Please hold until Jill Rosenthal starts the conference.
Audio will be delivered through your speakers,
so please ensure they are turned on.*

This event is supported by the Commonwealth Fund.

---

Assuring Better Child Health and Development: ABCD III

---

- ❑ Improving Care Coordination, Case Management, and Linkages to Support Healthy Child Development
- ❑ Support state Medicaid programs and their partners in developing:
  - lasting policy and systems improvements and
  - practice improvements that build and strengthen linkages between primary care providers and other child and family service providers

Today's Agenda

---

- Jill Rosenthal, M.P.H., Program Director, National Academy for State Health Policy
- Edward L. Schor, M.D., Vice President, The Commonwealth Fund
- Ellen Amore, M.S., Manager, Rhode Island KIDSNET
- Katherine Bradley, Ph.D., R.N., Administrator, Office of Family Health, Oregon Public Health Division, Department of Human Services

State Support for Care Coordination and Linkages

---

- Primary care practice-based strategies
- Service provider linkage strategies
- Systems change and cross systems strategies

NASHP ABCD III Resources

---

- ❑ Improving Care Coordination, Case Management, and Linkages to Service for Young Children: Opportunities for States
<http://www.nashp.org/sites/default/files/Commonwealth.pdf>
- ❑ State Strategies for Care Coordination, Case Management, and Linkages for Young Children: A Scan of State Medicaid, Title V, and Part C Agencies
<http://www.nashp.org>
- ❑ ABCD Electronic Resource Center (ERC)
<http://www.nashp.org/abcd-welcome>
- ❑ ABCD Electronic Discussion Forum
<http://abcdresources.org/ScreeningAcademylogin.php>